

RLF PREPARES TO EXHIBIT AT CAC 2018

19th China International Agrochemical & Crop Protection Exhibition

Authorised for release by :

Melanie Wu,
Deputy General Manager, RLF China

The China International Agrochemical and Crop Protection Exhibition is an eagerly awaited three day event held each year in Shanghai. It is in its 19th year.

This year it is being held from Wednesday 7th March 2018 to Friday 9th March 2018 at the Shanghai New International Expo Centre (SNIEC) in Shanghai, China. The event showcases a wide range of agricultural and chemical products, and a range of fertiliser products.

Because of the prestige and importance of this international trade expo, RLF will once again introduce new products to the market as it expands and renews its specialty liquid fertilisers. This is always an exciting time for the company as it rises to meet the challenges faced by its customers, and particularly those within the Asia region marketplace.

Who will attend?

RLF's Managing Director Mr Ken Hancock and the Director Global Markets Mr Gavin Ball will travel from Australia to be present at the Exhibition. RLF's China-based management and sales team will also be very pleased to meet with our current customers and clients, and to make themselves available as new contacts and relationships are established.

About CAC

CAC is the world's largest agrochemical exhibition and integrates new product display, technical exchange and trade talks. It therefore becomes the world's largest one-stop shop for active participation in international agricultural trade and cooperation at all levels of the industry. Not only does it feature fertilisers, pesticides, seeds, crop protection equipment, production and packaging equipment and logistical support services, but provides real opportunity for innovative discussion and exchange for future developments that will support the goals and desired outcomes for the global agricultural industry as a whole.

2018 will see over 1,000 exhibiting companies from more than 20 countries. It is expected that the Exhibition will attract more than 30,000 visitors. More information about CAC and its planning and organisation for 2018 can be viewed here.

RLF is proud of its connection with CAC and is once again looking forward to establishing its presence at the Exhibition. RLF Managing Director Ken Hancock said, "our commitment continues again this year. It is such a wonderful opportunity for the company to establish meaningful working relationships, and to renew and build on our current customer relationships. We also hope to make new acquaintances during CAC 2018".
